much as borough orders are not "negotiable paper" the next question purpose of nominating a burgess and that naturally arises is what action other borough officers. Sacks & Brown propose to pursue to recover their money. The situation is certainly a perplexing one and any-thing but cheerful as far as Contractors Healey & Andreas are concerned.

The revelations disclosed by Engineer Bartl during the week just closed have worked the people of this town up to a pitch of excitement only exceeded by that which attended the Tweed ring exposure in New York years ago. When the auditors sought to perform—and acceptably did—a similar service last fall they were the "butt" of uncanny remarks. Many alleged their motive was "purely mercenary," but the present exposure following so closely upon their investigation renews intesest and has been the means of sustaining any suspicion of wrong doing they supposed existed. It is to be hoped that Bur-gess Maloney will prosecute the good work he has so fearlessly begun, and while he is about it, have Mr. Bartlthan whom there is no better surveyor hereabouts-measure William street and ascertain if possible if the work amounted, as Andreas & Healey alleged, to some $4,800.

A faint idea of the health of this community may be gleaned from the fact that a clerk in one of the drug stores of this town compounded 300 prescriptions during the month of De-There are eleven stores of this kind in Pittston. Assuming that each of the eleven compounded a similar amount there would be a grand total of 3,300, or an average of 110 for each day in the month. As is well known there are hundreds of cases which are never brought to a doctor's attention, preferring home treatment.

WILL SUPPORT MR. MALONEY.

The Citizen's Committee Caucus Decides for His Re-election.

At a meeting of the standing executive committee of the Citizen's Reform movement held in Phenix hall last evening, Benjamin Harding presided, and John McNamara acted as secretary. The meeting was held as a preliminary move to a convention of citizens in the same place tonight, for the purpose of selecting a reform borough ticket to be voted for at the approaching spring election.

Thomas Mangan offered a motion empowering the chairman to name delegates to the convention. Mr. Harding replied that delegates had already been named in all wards except the Tenth, and that these delegates will support Burgess Maloney for reelection.

WASN'T A QUORUM PRESENT.

No Session of the Borough Council for Six Weeks.

The non-partisan members of the borough council, elected under the citizens' reform movement, refused to be present last evening, and a quorum could not be obtained for the transaction of business. No meeting has been held in six
